May 24, 2012 BAHAMAS SWEEPSTAKES CRUISE

NASSAU

Located on the island of New Providence, Nassau is the capital of the Bahamas. You'll find the islands' best sightseeing and historic buildings there. In addition to the attractions in Nassau proper, there are a number of tourist sites on Paradise Island, a spot of land off Nassau that has been transformed into a high-rise gambling and leisure haven. It's connected to the capital by two arched, one-way bridges.

FREEPORT

Freeport and Lucaya are often referred to as if they were one city. Together they make up the development on the Grand Bahama island, but they actual started off as two separate places.

Freeport is the landlocked center of the islands where you'll find many interesting shops. Lucaya is the waterfront development a few miles to the east, where the newest hotels, shops and restaurants line a strip of land between the sea and the salt pond.

THE SWEEPSTAKES WINNER INCLUDES AN OCEAN-VIEW CABIN, AND ALL GRATUITIES FOR TWO ADULTS.

DRAWING WILL BE MARCH 19, 2012

DO I NEED A PASSPORT?

Passports are always the best way to travel when going on a cruise, but it is not the only method of going on a cruise. If you decide not to get a passport, you will need the following:

- A government-issued photo ID (such as a driver's license.)
- A certified birth certificate. A certified birth certificate has a registrar's raised, embossed, impressed or multicolored seal, registrar's signature, and the date the certificate was filed with the registrar's office.
- If you are going to apply for a U.S. Passport, visit your local Post Office for an application. You can go on-line to get a fast certified birth certificate, if you do not currently have one.
